WHY YOU SHOULD BE A SPONSOR

Recruit Talent!

View resumes from hundreds of skillful students. Interview with potential hires and blossoming new programmers. See talented individuals who show excellent teamwork skills and solve complex problems overnight.

Mentor!

Inspire students through workshops and collaborations. Talk to students about important skills and give advice about the professional world. Make meaningful connections that will last a lifetime.

Advertise!

You can introduce your company to HackUNT attendees and encourage them to use your products and/or services by offering swag, guidance, and/or prizes. Let attendees know about your company culture and hiring practices for future talent. Bring your company into their world.

Your support is key!

Your support as a sponsor for HackUNT will help every aspect of the event. Contributions from sponsors cover the costs of the venue, food, t-shirts, staffing, prizes, security, swag and more. There is no entry fee for attendees. This event is completely funded by generous sponsors like yourself!

We want to provide an opportunity for you to develop a strong presence in Texas' engineering community. By sending representatives, developers, and mentors, you can foster a relationship with tomorrow's engineering talent. By providing swag you can advertise your company and leave an everlasting impression on HackUNT's attendees!
